

Seedings Shielding Scheme 2017

To protect seedings from the attack of wild birds, the Gardening Club has launched Seedings Shielding Scheme. The scheme included the construction of a small green house and a protection net. Through the scheme, they learnt to be patient and took care of seedings with care. It is good for their life long development.

