

English Day-Special Food around the World

Our English Day was successfully held on 23 February 2017. The theme was Special Food around the World. A stall was set up in which students communicated in English and learnt more about foreign food and cultures. Students were interested in the interactive games.

