

Student of the Year Award 2018/2019 (25 May 2019)

Student of the Year Award 2018/2019, organised by the South China Morning Post and sponsored by the Hong Kong Jockey Club, searches for Hong Kong's most outstanding secondary school students and honours excellence in nine distinct categories. 4C LIU Yuen-ki (Sportsperson), 5E KO Ming-sum (Community Contributor) and 5E WONG Tak-wai (Community Contributor) were shortlisted in their respected category. After leadership camp and interview, 5E KO Ming-sum was awarded the First Runner-up of The Student of the Year Community Contributor owing to her outstanding achievements and commitment in supporting community-based projects. For the betterment of society, Kitty started to volunteer when she was in Form 2. For the last three years, she has worked tirelessly for different groups in Hong Kong helping children, the elderly, homeless people, those with disabilities and ethnic minorities. She has completed more than 600 hours of voluntary service and her actions have also influenced others to take part. 4C LIU Yuen-ki and 5E WONG Tak-wai were also awarded for their outstanding achievements.

KO Ming-sum

LIU Yuen-ki, KO Ming-sum and WONG Tak-wai
(From left to right)

KO Ming-sum
(front row second left)

KO Ming-sum
(first right)

STUDENT OF THE YEAR

2018/19

Kitty Ko Ming-sum 高明心

N.T. Heung Yee Kuk Yuen Long District Secondary School / Form 5

Kitty Ko Ming-sum started to volunteer when she was in Form 2. For the last three years, she has worked tirelessly for different groups in Hong Kong helping children, the elderly, homeless people, those with disabilities, and ethnic minorities. She has completed more than 600 hours of voluntary service and her actions have also influenced others to take part. In future, she hopes to study something in the medical field, so she can contribute to society by putting her knowledge to good use.