

The Harvard Book Prize and Essay Award 2021

(28 May 2021)

5E YU Tung-ching participated in the 2021 Harvard Book Prize programme organized by The Harvard Club of Hong Kong Education Fund. She was selected as the Winner of the 2021 Essay Award for her excellent writing entitled ‘Information Explosion — How Should We Handle This Pandora’s Box?’, which exhibited her remarkable insights and literary talent.

In the same event, 5E YU Tung-ching, 5E WONG Pak-ching Janice and 5E WONG Nok-ching were selected as Winners of the Harvard Book Prize as commendation for their excellent academic performance, exceptional personal qualities and significant contribution to the community.

Prizes awarded are as follows:

Awardee	Award
5E YU Tung-ching	Winner of the 2021 Essay Award
5E YU Tung-ching	Winner of the Harvard Book Prize
5E WONG Pak-ching Janice	Winner of the Harvard Book Prize
5E WONG Nok-ching	Winner of the Harvard Book Prize

5E YU Tung-ching receiving the Essay Award at the Award Presentation Ceremony

Principal YUEN with 5E YU Tung-ching (2nd left),
WONG Pak-ching Janice (1st right) and WONG Nok-ching (1st left)

5E YU Tung-ching with Ms TANG

5E YU Tung-ching (centre), 5E WONG Pak-ching Janice (right) and 5E WONG Nok-ching (left) receiving prizes at the Award Presentation Ceremony