

‘Linguistics Cup – Voices of New Generation’
National Secondary Schools Essay Competition 2022/23
(12 September 2023)

Our students shone in the 2nd ‘Linguistics Cup – Voices of New Generation’ National Secondary Schools Essay Competition 2022/23, organized by the Association for Newspapers and Periodicals of Chinese Linguistics. 3D ZHONG Anruo, was awarded the First Prize (National Level) in the Final with her work titled ‘Forge Ahead; Rest’.

This year’s theme of the competition is ‘Youth Nurtures Infinite Hope; Youths Create a Brighter Future’. The competition aims to highlight the endeavours made by new generations in contributing to the nation’s future through their aspiration. It encourages participants to actively engage with society, immerse themselves in everyday life, and focus on the ordinary citizens; vividly depicting the contemporary scenes of life. It also urges participants to equip themselves with the quintessential qualities of new generations, pay attention to and understand new generations, and establish an ideal of striving to be part of the new generation of the times.

Award	Awardee
First Prize in the Finals (National Level)	3D ZHONG Anruo

Principal YUEN, 3D ZHONG Anruo and Ms. KWOK (from left to right)