

Exchange with the Ministry of Education (Singapore)

(17 April 2024)

As one of the Hong Kong representatives in an exchange event, 3D LIANG Yarou met with representatives from the Singapore Ministry of Education on 17 April 2024 (Wednesday). In the session, she shared her own experience in gifted education, shedding light on the unique challenges and opportunities she encountered throughout her academic journey.

Organized by the Hong Kong Academy for Gifted Education (HKAGE), the event is part of the Hong Kong Gifted Apprentice Programme research skill enrichment training. Subvented by the Education Bureau of the HKSAR government, the organization has been actively providing opportunities for the local gifted students, aged 10 to 18 years, to enable them to realise their potential in a wide range of learning domains including academic and non-academic areas covering leadership, creativity and interpersonal skills, and to cater for their social and emotional needs as well as their sense of commitment to the community.
