LI Tsz-ying's award-winning entry is titled 'Guardian – Peace'. The design concept features the 'Dragon' as a symbol of auspiciousness and the relentless spirit of self-improvement of our nation. It ingeniously transforms the 'Great Wall' into an auspicious dragon protecting Hong Kong. This symbolizes that, under the institutional strengths of the 'One Country, Two Systems' and the protection of the Great Wall, Hong Kong can maintain its prosperity and stability, highlighting the importance of safeguarding political and territorial security. The 'Halo' in the work represents the line of defence formed by the people of the whole country to protect our territory, ensuring the long-term stability and safety of Hong Kong.
